

PRIVACY POLICY AVAILABLE AT www.accessiblespace.org under “LEGAL”:

Privacy Statement regarding Accessible Space, Inc.’s Web Site:

Accessible Space, Inc. (ASI) reserves the right at its sole discretion to limit or terminate any person or organization’s right to access or use the web site for any reason. ASI recognizes the importance of protecting personal information we may collect from users of this web site. ASI collects personal information only when provided by the user. ASI uses personal information for purposes of processing a request from the user. Information is used internally and is not shared with the general public. Some information may be shared with required state or federal agencies for the purposes of determining eligibility and suitability for services offered or if there has been unethical or unlawful use of the web site by the user. Information provided by the user may be maintained in Accessible Space, Inc.’s private database.

Privacy Statement regarding Accessible Space, Inc. Residents and Applicants:

It is the policy of Accessible Space, Inc. (ASI) to protect the privacy of individuals covered by the Federal Privacy Act of 1974, and to ensure the protection of such individuals' verification records maintained by Management. This information may be released to appropriate local, state, and federal agencies, when relevant, and to civil, criminal or regulatory investigators and prosecutors as required by law. However, the information will not be otherwise disclosed or released without written authorization from the individual. This policy in no way restricts or limits ASI from collecting any such information to determine eligibility for housing and/or rental assistance, to compute rent, or to determine an applicant's suitability for tenancy. Consistent with the intent of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, any information obtained on handicap or disability status will be treated in a confidential manner.